MIRA DAS

RIVER SIDE

The cultural action program 12miradas in collaboration with Riverside, a project of social commitment of Hijos de Rivera to promote art and creativity, convenes its first international workshop in Mana Contemporary NJ by the Galician artist Antonio Murado from October 4 to 9, 2019

In this hands-on workshop 12 students (6 Spanish citizens or residents, and 6 US citizens or residents, all selected by the artist) will work alongside Murado on a project bringing to light new forms, tools and processes.
Aimed at visual and decorative arts professionals.
For more information, please write us at info@12miradas.com. The application must be submitted as a single PDF including a letter with the applicant's full name, motivations for applying, CV, field/discipline, contact phone and email address.

The grant covers enrollment fees, travel insurance, airfare from Madrid to NY, and food and board for 7 days in October 2019 (exact dates TBD).

Applications will be received from July 1 to July 31.

Successful applicants will subsequently be informed of all other relevant details for the workshop.

Participation in the workshop entails full acceptance of the terms set forth in this open call. The organizers reserve the right to interpret these terms and to resolve any issues which might arise.

The organizers reserve the right to publish and reproduce all visual matter produced in the workshop. Likewise, they reserve the right to publish the information that participants have provided in their applications, in order to publicize the activity and promote the artists.

The personal information provided in the application process will be stored in the file "Becados 2018/2019."
